

CASE STUDY: MADE ⁱⁿ AMERICA '22

CAMPAIGN OVERVIEW:

We recruited creators in Philadelphia and surrounding markets to promote the Made In America 2022 festival, taking place in Philadelphia on September 3 & 4 with headliners Bad Bunny and Tyler The Creator.

Creators were required to post the tour admat or a “get ready with me” theme, including a ticket link in their bios for a minimum of 1 week, and tag the festival in their posts.

All creators were activated 2 weeks before the festival began.

CAMPAIGN STRATEGY

Songfluencer outlined a radius around the festival location in Philadelphia to target creators in nearby cities and states like Washington, D.C., Baltimore, Connecticut, New Jersey, and New York City.

POSTING REQUIREMENTS:

Creators were required to include the following in their posts:

- Include a trackable ticket link in their bio for a minimum of 7 days to encourage ticket sales
- Include the date, location, and name of festival in the post caption or in text on video to encourage the spread of information
- Use audio from their favorite artists on the lineup for Made in America Festival to further motivate fans of the artists to attend the festival

CREATIVE DIRECTION:

WE DEVELOPED AND LAUNCHED ALL THREE OF THESE CONCEPTS TO REACH MULTIPLE DEMOGRAPHICS OF FESTIVAL-GOERS

Greenscreen effect: Using the festival admat as a visual background, creators were encouraged to share their musical tastes and excitement for the lineup at the event.

Foodies and other non-music highlights: Creators shared the food and other festival extras they were looking forward to.

“Get ready with me”: Creators followed a content trend showing off favorite festival fashions & what they plan on wearing at the Made in America festival.
