Diamonds & Rhinestones: The Greatest Hits Collection

Dolly's TikTok debut launched with the release of the Sony Nashville Diamonds & Rhinestones: The Greatest Hits Collection album.

We hired creators to rank their favorite Dolly tracks or test their knowledge on her discography with a "know it (or not)" game. All creators used the source audio from hired creator @iamchxstopher's original post HERE that highlighted Dolly classics like "Jolene," "9 to 5," and "I Will Always Love You."

@iamchxstopher

We had drafts created pre-TikTok launch in collaboration with Dolly's management so as soon as Dolly went live creators were primed to go!

We worked market-specific campaigns for Sony US, Canada, and the UK, with Canada and the UK labels piggybacking the US-based launch with localized content and creators from those territories.

“Run” / “Big Dreams and Faded Jeans”

We took a two-pronged approach to celebrate the release of Dolly Parton’s Run Rose Run album (accompanying the #1 NY Times Bestselling book with James Patterson).

On TikTok, we ran a hybrid Prefly and Songfluencer TikTok campaign on album track “Run,” a non-single identified by our team as a standout track that could engage creators. We were proven right, gaining over 18 million+, with our community leaning into comedy content from Moms, to Gen-Z dating, to POV creators!

On Instagram, we wanted to celebrate Dolly’s Nashville roots and the setting of the book, so recommended leaning into her “Big Dreams and Faded Jeans” single lyric “...Nashville is the place to be” for some strong local posts.

The Run Rose Run album earned the #1 spot on the Billboard Americana/Folk Albums chart and Billboard Bluegrass Albums chart, as well as a top 5 spot on the Billboard Country Albums chart.
